GREENEVILLE

Lawn Party Given by St. Mary's Church Societies Was a Big Success

—Personal.

The lawn festival conducted by the Ladies' Charitable and Holy Name societies, assisted by the Young Ladies' Society, on the Convent avenue grounds Thursday evening proved to be a grand success, and the various committees in charge were congratulated for their successful efforts.

The grounds were handsomely lighted by means of large sized arc lights and scores of electric bulbs strung about the enclosure. The evening's program opened at 8 o'clock, when Director John M. Swahn of Tubbs' band, leading the band, rendered one of the most popular numbers, judging by the frequent bursts of approval which greeted the several numbers.

The program was as follows:

March, King Cotton, Sousa Overture, Poet and Peasant, Suppe Waltz, Adèle, Lampe
Operatic, Prince of Pilsen, Laders
No. 2, You Play the Game, Smith
Love, Peist
Popular selection, Peist Song Med-Smith
Ft.ale, America.

The various stands were as follows and were well patronized: Country store, a mecca for the housekeepers, African, a mecca for the housekeepers, where someone was bound to get a prize fortune teller, fish pond and grab bait, where the fishermen always bite in the way of an article, homemade cake and candy which showed up the fine taste of the housekeepers who contributed the same, ice cream and soda which quenched the thirst of all.

Dancing was enjoyed until 11 o'clock the music from the band, and in one section of the grounds the game of 45 was played at 11 o'clock.

Noted in the large attendance was his honor Mayor Murphy and Rev.
John P. Galvin. It was estimated that 1,000 persons were at the grounds and spent a most enjoyable evening. The sole proceeds of the affair will be given to Rev. John H. Fitzmaurice, the rector, as a means of further reducing the parish mortgage.

DEPOSED PRESIDENT BRINGS SUIT

Isaac Sherman Wants Receiver for Joslin-Lena Co. of Stonington—Claims Other Directors Conspired to Gain Control of the Business—Norwich Man Brings Suit for $1,000 Against Assailant Who Stabbed Him.

New suits refiled before the superior court in September placed on file on Thursday with the clerk of the superior court included the following: Isaac Sherman of Stonington, holder of 50 shares of the capital stock of the Joslin-Lena Co. of Stonington, formerly the Isaac Sherman company, brings suit to have a receiver appointed for the company and that the company be declared insolvent. The company is a building and contracting company, which the papers in the suit represent was formed on March 22, 1913, and has a capital of $100,000.
The plaintiff claims that the other two men he has been ousted from his office as president and general manager of the company and discharged from his employment and that although the company has done a good business and has a large amount of money in the treasury, the majority stockholders refused to declare any dividends, which has been for the purpose of preventing Mr. Sherman from sharing in the profits of the concern and compelling him to sell his stock at a loss, which is the same as the reasonably worth.

Of the authorized capital stock of $100,000, 500 shares of $100 each, $15,000 or 150 shares has actually been subscribed as the amount with which the concern began business, each of the three stockholders subscribing 50 shares.

On March 31, 1913, Mr. Sherman alleges that Joslin and Lena combined together for the purpose of getting active control of the business themselves and for the purpose of preventing Mr. Sherman from having a voice in the management of the company except as a stockholder.

ROAD BUILDING COMPANY TOOK HIS PROPERTY.

Claim Made by Voluntown Man—Trees, Gravel, Loom and Stone Walls.

The Goodman-Trumbull company, which made the repairs to Logger Hill in Voluntown, has been made the defendant in a suit brought by Clark H.
Rice of Voluntown for damage to property in Voluntown. The suit is for $1,500, and property owned by the defendant company in Voluntown and Sperryville was attached Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Manuel J. Martin.

The plaintiff alleges that while the Goodman-Trumbull company was constructing a road in that section it took two cords of wood, 113 loads of gravel, 17 loads of loam, sections of stone walls, cut down three apple trees and blasted several hundred tons of stone on his property.

The papers are returnable at the September term of the superior court.
Attorney Charles W. Comstock represents the plaintiff.

Horace Johnson Predicts.

Here's Horace Johnson's latest.
There will be a disturbance of note

TAFTVILLE AFFAIRS

Belt Broke at Penamal Mills—Local Men Going Camping—Norwich Men Camped Over Night at the Island—Personals.

The carding and weaving rooms of the Penamal mills were forced to shut down Thursday morning at 10:30 until 1 o'clock. The main belt broke, thus affecting the power in these two rooms.
No one was hurt when the break occurred and the repair gang was quickly set to work, and they had things O. K. so that work could be resumed in the afternoon.

New London Independents Here.

Now that Manager Bennett has devoted Baltic and other fast teams in this vicinity, he will line his braves up against the best semi-professional team in the Whaling City, New London Independents, who are booked to appear Saturday afternoon on the Providence street grounds.

The local team has cleaned up Baltic, the fans are putting more and more confidence in the ability of the team and are eager for Manager Bennett to bring out. As for a mascot artist Saturday, the management have not decided, but he will be one of good standing.

The local opponents Saturday are considered one of the fastest teams around in the eastern part of the state and are sure to put up a battle royal.
Greater than a former pitcher, Ed Sachene, does the twirling for the Whalers.

After the game, members of the Taftville soccer football team are going to have their first real practice of the season, and those not familiar with the game can be taught to see how the practice for the English game is carried out.

Camped Here Over Night.

Two Norwich young men camped out on the island Wednesday evening.
They came all the way from Willimantic to camp here, having shipped their canoe to Willimantic from Norwich, and embarked on their trip on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and spent the night on the shore along the river after it became so dark navigation was difficult. They arrived here about 4 o'clock and pitched their camp as they found the island an ideal spot for their camp. They started out early Thursday morning for their destination, Norwich.
